About the Author

Anne Tucker Roberts is a gifted teacher and writer. For nearly two decades she taught adolescents with developmental disabilities. After 12 years in this position, Anne was recognized as a Master Teacher and awarded a “Golden Apple” for professional excellence. Anne left this rewarding career to care for elderly parents. During that time she began writing memoirs and completed two books. This book is the result of a new collaborative work between Anne and these remarkable mothers. Anne graduated from Boston College with a BA in Liberal Arts. She later earned a Master’s in Education and a Master’s in Special Education. She continues her work as a guardian to four women with developmental disabilities. She lives with her husband of 30 years in Scituate, MA.
